PRESIDENT'S PAGE

There is a chill in the air so it must be Fall. I hope everyone has had a chance to make his or her holiday gifts and/or holiday fair items. I for one am running behind.

At the November meeting, we will have our own Jay Hockenberry doing a demo on natural edge bowls. Jay's approach to mounting the bowl blank is very interesting and I am sure everyone will be surprised.

Jay and I attended the monthly Yankee Woodturning Association meeting on Oct. 22nd. The website is www.yankeewoodturningsymposium.org. We can report that all appears to be going well. Check out the site for a list of the demonstrators, it's impressive!

I will be down in Norwalk at the Woodworkers Club on Saturday Nov. 11th (Veterans Day) doing Freedom Pens. If you get a chance, please stop by and make a pen to be sent to our troops overseas. If you can't make it to Norwalk, bring a pen to the meeting and I will get it down before they ship the pens out.

Remember if you want your money back bring in your Poplar Bowl for the challenge.

See you at the meeting and keep a sharp edge!

Buster
