PRESIDENT'S PAGE

We have Allen Nemetz as the May demonstrator; he will be showing us how to make a Native American Indian Flute.

I want to thank everyone that came to the last Learn & Turn at the Craft Center. The items we turned will be big sellers.

Looking at all the dates below, we will hopefully be a very busy group during the next few months.

We have a lot of items to discuss during the May meeting. I hope all of you will be in attendance.

1. Bowl Fest 2009

- a. Final turning dates are May 9, 10, 16 & 17
 - i. We need turners.

2. Open House on May 9th and 10th

- a. May 9 and 10 will be Open House at the BCC Train Station.
 - i. Turning Studio and Glass Studio
 - ii. Nutmeg will sell items made during the April 11th Learn & Turn

3. Nutmeg Meeting May 11th

- a. All Bowls brought to the May meeting will earn one ticket for the raffle for a David Ellsworth gouge.

4. Nutmeg Woodturners 20th Anniversary

- a. Would like to have reception at BCC on Aug 15th in the River Room for all members and also for past members still in the area.
- b. Consider serving wine and cheese

5. Nutmeg Woodturners exhibition at BCC Aug. 16th to Sep. 27th

- a. The exhibition will be in the LTB gallery. All items submitted must be for sale with 50% of sale price to the artist and 50% to BCC.
- b. We would like 100% Nutmeg input

6. Nutmeg Picnic

- a. Jim Degen has offered to host the picnic at his house on July 25th

Please bring in something for the raffle and don't forget about the Show & Tell

Keep a sharp edge!

Buster
